Ratepayer Concerns

Don Reggenwetter attended the meeting to state his concerns regarding the problems he is having as a developer in the County. He stated that the County was requiring a 2 million dollar letter of credit from him and it was making it very costly for him to proceed. He further reported that another concern he had was with a condition on his development that required him to have a back up generator for his pump-up system. He stated that other developments in the County were not required to have this and asked why.

Reeve Wes Tweedle thanked Mr. Reggenwetter for his comments and reported that Administration would research his concern with the back up generator.

Mr. Reggenwetter left the meeting at 11:29 am.
