Brazeau County Council Appoints Interim CAO

BRAZEAU COUNTY, February 20, 2018 — Brazeau County Council is pleased to announce the appointment of Jocelyn Whaley as Interim CAO, effective today, Tuesday, February 20th.

Whaley has a diverse background in municipal affairs, including her current role as Collaborative Relations and Regulatory Officer for K & M Group in Morinville, Alberta, which provides professional project management, engineering, construction management, marketing and sales services. She has also served as a Leduc County Councillor from 2010-2013, and as an Executive Assistant at the City of Edmonton.

Her experience is in investigational allocation and strategic resource utilization, business management and government relations. She has an extensive knowledge of the Municipal Government Act, policy development and regulatory oversight and collaborative relations.

“Jocelyn brings a balanced approach to the position as an elected official with extensive administrative skills,” says Reeve Bart Guyon. “We are looking forward to working with her.”

“It is a great privilege and pleasure to be working with Brazeau County Council and staff to serve the residents of this forward-thinking County,” Whaley says.
