

COREY KEITH – BIOGRAPHY

Mr. Keith has helped companies and organizations think strategically and obtain financing for over 30 years. He worked in the banking industry for 25 years, at one point managing a portfolio of a $100 million dollars He served as Vice President, Business Development with an early stage technology company, and as Senior Investment Manager with a private investment firm. He formed his own consulting company in 2003.

As part of his consulting business, Mr. Keith founded and served as President of AVNet, a not for profit “angel” investor network that connected Alberta companies seeking investment with a national network of over 150 private investors.

Corey was a member and Director of the Rotary Club of Saskatoon and a founding Board member of the Saskatoon Inner City Pre-School Foundation. He also was the founding Chair of the Royal Bank’s United Way of Saskatoon Charity Golf tournament.

Corey is a past Director of the Mississauga Technology Association, the Toronto Biotechnology Incubator and the Alberta Agrivalue Business Facilitators. He also served as one of 31 “Challenge Panel” members as part of the Province of Alberta’s “Results Based Budgeting” process.

Mr. Keith is a regular speaker on business issues, has delivered over 250 presentations across Canada and was a regular presenter as part of Calgary Technology Inc.’s “Financing Your Vision” seminars for over 4 years. He has written a published article on preparing a successful business plan, and was highlighted in a Canadian Business Magazine article on technology companies.

Mr. Keith is committed to helping companies and organization grow and prosper and has worked with hundreds of companies, providing assistance through financing and strategic advice.

Corey is President of Keith & Associates, a business management consulting firm that provides business coaching and “strategic financial perspectives”.