Brazeau County Administration Building Closed September 8th Due to Electrical Issues

Drayton Valley, Alberta, August 8, 2016 — Accumulation of water in the ground around the Brazeau County Administration Building has led to flooding of the electrical system, resulting in a threat to staff in the building and the public who may enter.

As a result, the building, office will be closed at 12 p.m., and for the remainder of the day today.

“We extend our sincere apology for any disruption this may cause our residents, but our focus is on public and staff safety,” says Chief Administrative Officer Marco Schoeninger.

Supervisors and select staff have been placed on call to attend to any emergencies related to their normal duties.

Residents with emergencies are encouraged to contact the Brazeau County Emergency On Call line at 780-542-8770.

Please call with emergencies only.

The building is scheduled to re-open at 8 a.m. Friday, September 9th.
