

RECREATION FEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM GUIDELINES

The Brazeau County Recreation Fee Assistance Program is administered by the Community Services Department. It is to provide Brazeau County residents the opportunity to participate in the recreation programs and activities at a subsidized cost. Eligible programs and activities will take place at named facilities in the recreation cost-sharing agreement, eligible facilities include the Ricochet Oil Corp. Aquatic Centre and Total Works Fitness Centre. Confidentiality will be maintained.

To qualify for this program you must:

1. Have proof of being a Brazeau County resident (utility bill, rental agreement, or government issued mail showing name and address)
2. Have proof of qualifying income status:
 - AISH recipients, or
 - Provincial Income Support program recipient, or
 - Refugee Status, or
 - Current EI recipient, or

Show gross household income that is below Statistics Canada's Low Income Cut-off (LICO), as amended annually. (For example, if one spouse or equivalent is on EI but the other spouse or equivalent's income is higher than the LICO, OR if the EI and the other's income combined is higher than the LICO, the household does not qualify for subsidy).

If you are not a recipient of any of these programs or benefits, you may still qualify. Please complete a Recreation Fee Assistance Program Application. Forms are available at the Brazeau County Office (7401 TWP RD 494, Drayton Valley, AB) or online at <https://www.brazeau.ab.ca/county-office/community-funding-and-awards>.

Funding is available to a maximum of $200 for each eligible person per calendar year, while funds are available.

Activities that qualify must:

- Be a program or activity offered in a facility named in the recreation cost sharing agreement or, in the absence of an agreement, offered at the Ricochet Oil Corp. Aquatic Centre, Omniplex, or Total Works Fitness Centre
- Be a minimum of four (4) days/classes in length, be a camp, or be a membership.

This program cannot be used for reimbursable fees (eg. fundraising or uniform expenses), travel to out of town competition, or programs of three (3) days or less.

You may be required to set up an appointment depending on staff availability. Please be prepared to bring your most recent Canada Revenue Agency Notice of Assessment, proof of identification, and your current contact information.
